RE: Endowment of Trial Advocacy Program at Thomas Jefferson School of Law

Dear Mr. Epsten:

On behalf of the Board of Trustees of the Thomas Jefferson School of Law, I wish to express our sincere gratitude to you, your partners and all others at Epsten Grinnell & Howell, APC for the extremely generous gift to endow the trial advocacy program at Thomas Jefferson School of Law. In honor of your firm's significant gift, this program has been named the Epsten Grinnell & Howell Trial Advocacy Program.

All of us who are a part of the Thomas Jefferson School of Law community truly understand the many benefits of this endowment, as such gift will not only serve as a means to further practical legal education and training but will also build a future cadre of legal professionals who will excel in their practice of law and be positive agents of change in our community. Experiential learning enriches the academic experience and adds real value to our graduates' real-world skills. By participating on the trial advocacy teams, our students will learn both practical courtroom skills and how to be true advocates for their clients.

Thank you for supporting the Thomas Jefferson School of Law in a personal and significant manner. Your firm's endowment will have a long-lasting and beneficial impact on the Thomas Jefferson School of Law and helps fulfill our mission of providing an outstanding legal education for a nationally-based and diverse student body in a collegial and supportive environment.

Very truly yours,

Randy M. Grossman
