

TIFFANY L. CHRISTIAN

Director of Marketing & Client Relations

Tiffany Christian joined Epsten, APC in January of 2015. She began her marketing career in 2001 and obtained her degree in Business Marketing from the University of Phoenix in 2006.

Tiffany is responsible for the firm's Annual Legal Symposia, an educational event attended by nearly a thousand Southern California community association managers and board members. Tiffany coordinates the publication of the firm's annual Community Association Law Resource Book, is responsible for the firm's website and handles all aspects of the firm's social media, marketing, graphic design, advertising, event coordination, corporate branding, team building and client relations.

As an active member of the Community Associations Institute (CAI) and the California Association of Community Managers (CACM), Tiffany is a member and former chair of CAI San Diego's Community Outreach committee, formerly PR & Marketing (2013-Present, chair 2016-2017), is the chair of CAI Greater Inland Empire's Country Faire event committee, formerly Promenade des Arts (2017-Present), is a member of CAI Coachella Valley's Bowling Committee (2016-Present) and is a member of CAI Coachella Valley's Volunteer Committee (2017-Present). Tiffany obtained the CAI Educated Business Partner distinction in 2013 and has received numerous awards, including CAI San Diego's 2015 Committee Volunteer of the Year Award, CAI Greater Inland Empire's 2016 Committee of the Year Award, CAI Coachella Valley's 2017 & 2018 Above and Beyond Award and CAI-Greater Inland Empire's 2018 Committee Chair of the Year Award.

A San Diego native, Tiffany is married with two children, enjoys walking and traveling and is an active participant in the local community as a former Executive Board Member for her local Little League and as a current Girl Scout Troop leader.