Epsten, APC Announces its New Leadership Team Effective September 1, 2021

San Diego, California – Epsten, APC, one of the oldest and largest Southern California community association law firms, announces its new officers and leadership team effective September 1, 2021.

Epsten, APC, has one of the strongest teams of common interest development attorneys in the industry with 21 attorneys and three offices in Southern California. The firm is known for its professionalism and quality as well as the reliable legal services it provides to its more than 1700 residential and commercial common interest development clients.

It continues to be the firm's goal to foster a culture based on traditional professional values and service to its clients. The firm practices law in an industry where trust, relationships, and excellence define success for its clients and itself. The firm will continue to provide the same continuity and stability as it has for more than 35 years.

These changes and additions to the Epsten, APC management structure will lead us into the future with a strong team of attorneys and dedicated staff. Managing Shareholders, Jon H. Epsten, Esq., CCAL and Susan M. Hawks McClintic, Esq., together, with fellow shareholders Kieran J. Purcell, Esq., Anne L. Rauch, Esq., Rian W. Jones, Esq., Dea C. Franck, Esq. and William S. Budd, Esq., agree these changes in officers and new roles will position the firm for its next decade of growth.

Effective September 1, 2021, the new leadership team for Epsten, APC is as follows:

- President/CEO/Managing Shareholder: Susan M. Hawks McClintic, Esq.
- Vice President/Client Relations: Jon H. Epsten, Esq., CCAL
